

HOW TO START A PRAYER MEETING

I. PRACTICAL TIPS ON STARTING A PRAYER MEETING

- A. Invite other Christians to pray together with you on a regular basis. If it is difficult for you to find someone who is willing to pray with you, do not be discouraged. Ask the Lord to lead you to someone.
- B. Small is the New Big. It doesn't take many people to start a regular prayer meeting. Remember that it only takes two people to start a prayer group and where two or three gather together in His name, He will be in the midst of them. Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah were a small prayer group, but they had big impact in Babylonian society because of their commitment to meet and pray together.
- C. Find a suitable meeting place. A church meeting room, a classroom, a dorm room, an office, or a home is a great place to meet together and pray.
- D. Pray biblically. Because even Christians have many different ideas on what prayer is and how it should look, we encourage you to pray biblical prayers – those prayers that are already found in the Scripture such as Ephesians 1:17-19 and 2 Thessalonians 3: 1-5. No one will argue with your prayer if it's in the Bible! Examples of New Testament prayers you can use are included in this sheet and can be downloaded from Luke18Project.com/resources.
- E. Keep a Consistent Schedule. Keep a consistent schedule of times that you will pray. For example, if you are going to pray once a week, keep it on the same day and same time every week. Human beings are creatures of habit and will pray more regularly together when they know what to expect and when to expect it.
- F. Commit. Often times, people start prayer meetings with a bang, but quickly fizzle out. Encourage those who agree to pray together to commit for a specific time period whether it is for one month, 6 months, or one year. Then, at the end of that time, the intercessors can recommit for another extended period of time.
- G. Start small. Many people are not used to long prayer meetings. We encourage you to start small. Instead of 4 or 5 hour prayer meetings, schedule 1 or 2 hours at a time. We have found that a normal dedicated college student can easily commit to a 1 or 2 hour prayer meeting. Anything beyond that generally becomes tedious for most people.
- H. Don't Cancel. Make every effort not to cancel your prayer meeting. Even if it's just a handful of people, continue on with your prayer meeting. Consistency is important! And it shows others that you are committed to your prayer meeting.
- I. Advertise. Whether you are a campus prayer furnace or a church prayer group, advertise your times of prayer. Usually, there are other people just like you that want to pray together with others, but just don't know how to start. By putting up signs on the school or church bulletin boards or sending out an email or posting on your Facebook account the times that you are praying and what you are praying for may encourage others to participate in your prayer meeting.
